

Invites you to attend an
Analyst Day
& Calibration Lab Tour

Management of Transcat (NASDAQ:TRNS) would like to invite you to their Analyst Day & Lab Tour taking place at its Houston Texas Calibration Lab on Thursday, August 14, 2025.

President and CEO Lee D. Rudow will be joined by other senior management team members to provide an overview of Transcat's position as an industry leading provider of mission critical, accredited calibration services and equipment, growth strategies and strategic initiatives.

Immediately following the presentation and Q&A session, attendees will have the opportunity to tour the lab and join senior management for lunch.

Investors and analysts who attend the tour will see one of the premier labs in Transcat's network of labs. The Houston lab is a general-purpose calibration lab that provides local depot and on-site calibration services to the surrounding region.

Please email TRNS@mzgroup.us or call Chris Tyson at (949) 491-8235 to register to attend the day.
